GENERAL

KEVIN McCLATCHY

CEO & Managing General Partner

Kevin McClatchy was named Chief Executive Officer and Managing General Partner of the Pittsburgh Pirates when the ownership group he formed purchased the franchise on February 14, 1996.

Despite the efforts of other potential buyers to move the Pirates elsewhere, the youngest owner in baseball was determined to keep the team in Pittsburgh. Maintaining a combination of tenacity and ingenuity throughout a grueling nine-month effort, McClatchy organized a group of civic-minded individuals and local corporations to save the franchise.

McClatchy will be long remembered for bringing the greatest ballpark in America to the city of Pittsburgh. On August 6, 1998, PNC Bank struck a deal with the Pirates to call the new venue PNC Park and on March 31, 2001, McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark became a reality as the Pirates hosted the New York Mets in the first-ever game played at PNC Park.

Construction on the 38,000-seat venue began in April of 1999 on the land adjacent to the Roberto Clemente Bridge (6th Street) along the north shore of the Allegheny River. On January 10, 2001, Paul Beeston, the Chief Operating Officer of Major League Baseball, proclaimed PNC Park as the "best-looking baseball stadium he had ever seen." The park received many other glowing reviews from national and local media during its inaugural season of 2001.

In 2001, the Pirates played in front of 19 sellouts and a club-record 2,436,139 fans the entire season. In the last five years @Three Rivers Stadium, the organization posted a total of 12 sellouts (four in 1997, three each in 1998 and 1999 and two in 2000). In the final game ever @Three Rivers on October 1, 2000, the Pirates attracted 55,351 fans - the largest regular-season crowd to ever see a baseball game in Pittsburgh.

In just his second year as the club's principal owner, the Pirates went from a last-place finish in 1996 to being the talk of baseball in 1997. Prior to the '97 campaign, Baseball America - considered the premier publication on minor league baseball - rated the Pirates' farm system as "the best in baseball" and USA Today newspaper named the Pirates as its "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season. In December of 1997, USA Today Baseball Weekly ranked the Pirates' success in 1997 as one of the top five baseball stories for the year.

McClatchy was honored by the Anti-Defamation League as its Man-of-the-Year, receiving the American Heritage Award at a ceremony in January of 2001. He was also named by Vectors/Pittsburgh as its Man-of-the-Year for 1999 and was honored by The Post-Gazette for his leadership role in assuring the Pirates' continued presence in Pittsburgh into the new century at the annual Dapper Dan dinner in February of 2000. For his commitment to keeping the club in Pittsburgh and stressing the importance of a new baseball-only venue, in addition to making over 100 speaking engagements in the tri-state area, In Pittsburgh news weekly named McClatchy its "Person-of-the-Year" in 1997.

The fifth owner of the 115-year-old organization, Kevin most recently served as National Sales Manager for the Newspaper Network; a subsidiary of McClatchy Newspapers. The McClatchy family, which founded The Sacramento Bee newspaper in 1857, has more than 20 different newspapers in 10 states nationwide.

McClatchy's professional career began at WPLG-TV, the ABC affiliate in Miami, where he served as a sports producer. He later joined Knight-Ridder Newspapers and spent four years in the national advertising and marketing department at The Miami Herald. In 1990, Kevin returned to California where he ran the daily business operations for The Amador Ledger-Dispatch and continued to work in the advertising and marketing departments for McClatchy Newspapers.

LLOYD McCLENDON

MANAGER

AGE: 43

RESIDES: Merrillville, IN

BATS: Right

HEIGHT: 6'0"

PLAYING POSITION: Outfielder

CONTRACT: Signed thru 2003

BORN: 1/11/59 in Gary, IN

THROWS: Right

WEIGHT: 210

Lloyd McClendon was named the 35th manager in the history of the Pirates on October 23, 2000. In his first year as a major league skipper, he led a club decimated by injuries to a 62-100 record and a sixth-place finish in the N.L. Central division.

Prior to the start of the 2001 regular season, the Pirates lost three of their five starting pitchers to injury (Kris Benson, Francisco Cordova, Jason Schmidt) and their top utility infielder (Mike Benjamin). Within the first month, the club's starting centerfielder (Adrian Brown) and free-agent leftthander Terry Mulholland were also beset by injury. All told, the Pirates lost a total of 19 players to injury during the season, totaling 1,275 games lost.

Lloyd's first big-league win came in the club's second game of the season; a 6-5, come-from-behind victory @Cincinnati on April 4, 2001. The Pirates split their first eight games, but would never again return to the .500 level. A three-game winning streak in early July moved the Bucs ahead of the Reds and into 5th place for a day. After slipping back into last place, the Pirates held on to the 5th spot from July 6 thru July 29. A loss to the Giants on July 31 and an 8-20 record in August kept the Bucs in the cellar the rest of the way.

Prior to being named manager, McClendon spent four seasons (1997-2000) working as the Pirates major league hitting coach under manager Gene Lamont. He also served the organization as its minor league hitting coordinator in 1996. His previous managerial resume included a California League championship after guiding the Lancaster Stealth to a 26-16 regular season record and the top mark in the 1999 Fall League. In addition, "Mac" managed the Peoria Javelinas in the Arizona Fall League in 2000, but resigned from that duty on November 1, one week after being named manager of the Pirates.

Lloyd spent parts of eight seasons in the major leagues; playing the last four years of his big league career with the Pirates. In 570 major league games, he compiled a .244 batting average, 35 home runs and 154 RBI. He batted .251 with 17 homers and 77 RBI in 312 games with the Bucs.

Originally selected by the New York Mets in the eighth round of the 1980 June free agent draft, McClendon made his professional debut with Kingsport in the Appalachian League that summer. He was traded to Cincinnati on 12/16/82, along with pitcher Charlie Puleo and outfielder Jason Felice, in exchange for pitcher Tom Seaver. In 1986, his second full season at the Triple-A level, Lloyd led the American Association with 24 home runs and was named to the league's post-season All-Star team. He made his major league debut with the Reds the following season against Montreal on 4/6.

After spending two seasons in the Cubs organization, "Mac" was claimed off waivers by the Pirates on 9/7/90. After four seasons in a Pittsburgh uniform, he was granted free agency and signed a minor league contract with Cleveland on 5/14/95. Lloyd retired as a player after appearing in 37 games with Buffalo (AAA) in 1995.

During his big league career, McClendon appeared in the League Championship Series with the Cubs (1989) and Pirates (1991-92) and compiled a .625 average (10-for-16) in 11 games. He homered off Atlanta's Marvin Freeman in Game Six of the 1992 L.C.S. and shares the Series record for most hits in one inning (2 -10/13/92, 2nd inning). In addition, Lloyd reached base safely in each of his last eight official plate appearances of the '92 L.C.S. (four singles, walk, home run, two walks).

PERSONAL: Lloyd Glenn McClendon...Wife's name is Ingrid...Two children; daughter Schenell (4/9/83) and son Bo (10/4/87)...Is a 1977 graduate of Roosevelt High School (IN) where he was an All-State selection in baseball...Played baseball at Valparaiso (IN) University...Participated in the 1971 Little League World Series and earned the nickname "Legendary Lloyd" after going 5-for-5 with five home runs (on five swings) and five intentional walks for his Gary (IN) team...His daughter is attending Valparaiso.

BATS: Left

PLAYING POSITION: Outfielder

CONTRACT: Signed thru 2002

BORN: 6/9/31 in Hazel Park, MI

THROWS: Right

WEIGHT: 185

Bill Virdon returned to the Pittsburgh organization as the major league Bench Coach for the 2001 season. He was named to his current position on October 30, 2000.

Virdon has amassed more than 40 years of experience in professional baseball as a player, manager and coach. He recently served the Houston Astros as their Bench Coach during the 1997 season, Larry Dierker's first as manager of that club.

Considered one of the finest centerfielders of his day, Bill spent the majority of his 11-year, big-league playing career with the Pirates. He made his major league debut with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1955 after winning the International League batting title with a .333 average with Rochester the previous season.

In 1955, he batted .281, hit 17 home runs and knocked in 68 runs to earn National League Rookie-of-the-Year honors from the BBWAA and The Sporting News. The following season he was traded to Pittsburgh, where he spent the next 10 years. Virdon compiled a career-high .319 average in his first season with the Bucs (1956) and finished second in the N.L. batting race behind Milwaukee's Hank Aaron. He was awarded a Gold Glove for his defensive excellence in 1962. In 1,583 career major league games, Bill combined to hit .267 with 91 home runs and 502 RBI.

After he retired as a player, Virdon managed in the New York Mets' farm system for two seasons before joining the Pirates as a coach under Manager Larry Shepard in 1968. He replaced Danny Murtaugh as manager prior to the 1972 season and the club went on to win the N.L. East title in his first season at the helm, but suffered a heartbreaking loss to the Cincinnati Reds on Bob Moose's infamous wild pitch in the fifth and deciding game of the N.L.C.S. Virdon was then replaced by Murtaugh during the 1973 season (the team was 67-69 at the time). In his two years as Pittsburgh's manager, he went 163-128 (.560).

Virdon also managed the Yankees (1974-75), Astros (1975-1982) and Expos (1983-84) during his major league career. He was named Major League Manager-of-the-Year by both The Sporting News and Associated Press after leading the Yankees to an 89-73 record and a second-place finish in 1974.

With the Astros, he guided the club to the 1980 National League West Division crown and was also at the helm when Houston won the second-half title during the 1981 strike-shortened season. In 1979, he was named United Press International's Manager-of-the-Year after the Astros finished second in the N.L. West. A year later he was once again named Manager-of-the-Year by The Sporting News after Houston won its division for the first time in club history.

Virdon's last managerial assignment was with Montreal in 1983 and 1984. His composite record in 13 years as a major league manager was 995-921 (.519).

Bill served the St. Louis Cardinals as a spring training instructor in 1985 before returning to the Pittsburgh organization as the team's hitting instructor during Jim Leyland's first year as manager in 1986. He then spent three seasons as the Pirates' minor league hitting instructor and spring training instructor before re-joining Leyland's major league staff for four seasons (1992-95).

DID YOU KNOW... THAT THE PIRATES HAVE NOT OUSTED A MANAGER DURING THE SEASON SINCE DOING SO TO BILL VIRDON IN 1973. WITH LOS ANGELES FIRING BILL RUSSELL AND REPLACING HIM WITH GLENN HOFFMAN DURING THE 1998 REGULAR SEASON, THE PIRATES NOW HAVE THE LONGEST RUN WITHOUT A MID-SEASON FIRING.

GENERAL AFFILIATES DEVELOPMENT POST-SEASON HISTORY 2001 REVIEW 2002 PIRATES ORGANIZATION

THE NEW LEADER: Lloyd McClendon, the youngest skipper (42) in the major leagues in 2001, made his major league managerial debut on April 3 against the Reds @Cingery Field - the same team he made his big-league debut as a player with in 1987...Lloyd is the 35th manager in the 115-year history of the club and just the sixth since 1970 (Danny Murtaugh, Bill Virdon, Chuck Tanner, Jim Leyland and Gene Lamont)...After losing his first game, 3-2, to the Reds, Lloyd notched his first big-league managerial victory on April 4 in Cincinnati.

ROSTER NOTES: A total of 19 players returned from the 2000 opening day roster, including Mike Benjamin, Kris Benson, Francisco Cordova, Rich Loiselle and Jason Schmidt, who began this season on the disabled list...Two players had no major league playing time (Joe Beimel and Jack Wilson) and three were picked up from other clubs during the off-season (Derek Bell, Terry Mulholland and Omar Olivares)...The oldest player on the opening day roster was Terry Mulholland (38) and the youngest was Aramis Ramirez (22)...The average age of Pittsburgh's opening day active roster was 28.8, compared to 28.0 last year, 27.4 in 1999, 26.7 in 1998 and 26.4 in 1997.

WIN #1 FOR MAC: First-year manager Lloyd McClendon picked up his first victory on April 4 @Cincinnati; a 6-5, 10-inning decision...In other 2001 debuts, Arizona's Bob Brenly beat the Dodgers in his first game, Cincinnati's Bob Boone lost to the Braves before beating the Pirates in game two, Los Angeles' Jim Tracy defeated the Brewers in game one, Philadelphia's Larry Bowa defeated the Marlins in game one and Toronto's Buck Martinez defeated the Rangers in the very first game of the year on April 1.

STATUE FOR POPS: The Pirates unveiled a statue honoring Willie Stargell on April 7 at 1:08 PM...The 12-foot-high statue is made of bronze and stands at the left field entrance to PNC Park on Federal Street...Stargell spent 21 seasons with the Bucs (1962-1982) and is the franchise leader in home runs (475), RBI (1,540) and extra-base hits (953)...The ballclub retired Stargell's uniform #8 in 1982 and in 1988 he became the 200th member of Baseball's Hall-of-Fame...Statues of Honus Wagner (Home Plate entrance) and Roberto Clemente (center field entrance) also adorn the grounds of the new ballpark.

INTERLEAGUE PLAY: The Bucs went 8-6 against the American League in 2001 - their first winning inter-league season - and have posted a 34-38 record in the five-year history of interleague action...The Pirates went 5-1 against A.L. teams @PNC Park in 2001, sweeping a three-game series from Cleveland (June 15-17) and winning the two-of-three against the Royals from July 12-14.

TWIN BILLS: The Pirates played four doubleheaders in 2001...They were swept in Philadelphia on May 23, lost a pair to the Braves @PNC Park on June 3 and split with the Brewers in Pittsburgh on September 3...In addition, the Bucs split a "day-night" doubleheader with the Astros @PNC Park on July 28.

BEATING THE MVP's: The Pirates led the National League with 100 losses but they were the only team to defeat World Series MVP's Curt Schilling and Randy Johnson - the league's two biggest winners - in the same series...The Bucs defeated 22-game winner Schilling 4-2 on August 21 and 21-game winner Johnson 5-1 on August 23...The Pirates lost the middle game to Albie Lopez, who lost a total of 19 games in 2001, but tossed a four-hit shutout @PNC Park on August 22.

LOVE THE BREW: Pittsburgh posted a 9-1 record against the Brewers @PNC Park, sweeping a four-game series from June 25-28, winning back-to-back games on May 19-20 and winning three-of-three from September 3-5...Prior to the 2001 campaign, the Bucs had gone 5-12 against the Brew Crew in Pittsburgh.

30 x 2: Brian Giles (37) and Aramis Ramirez (34) each topped the 30-homer mark in 2001...The only other year in club history in which two players hit 30 or home runs for the Pirates was 1990, when Barry Bonds (33) and Bobby Bonilla (32) did so...A total of 11 different Pirates (25 occasions) have now hit 30 or more homers in a single season.

30 x 3: Brian Giles finished the season with 37 home runs...In the process, he became just the third Pittsburgh player to hit 30 or more home runs in three consecutive seasons (he had 39 in 1999 and 35 in 2000)...Ralph Kiner hit 30 or more in a club-record six consecutive seasons (1947-52) and Willie Stargell did so in four straight years (1970-73).

THRU THE GATES: The Bucs established their single-season attendance record in their first year @PNC Park...The club attracted a total of 2,436,139 fans (30,837 average for 79 dates)...In addition, the Pirates sold out a club-record 19 games during the 2001 season.

THE HOME SLATE: The Pirates wrapped up their first season @PNC Park with an 8-4 loss to the Cubs on September 26...They posted a 38-43 record @PNC Park, going 4-4 in April, 6-8 in May, 9-7 in June, 6-7 in July, 5-7 in August and 8-10 in September...They won a season-high six straight home games and lost a season-high seven in a row...Of the 15 series that the Bucs won in 2001, nine came @PNC Park (including four sweeps).

OUCH! A total of 1,275 games among 19 players were lost to injury in 2001.

1-3 START: The last season in which the Pirates started out 1-3 was 1995 (1-4)...They began that campaign with a 4-13 record after 17 games.

M.L. DEBUT: Lefty Joe Beimel made his major league debut as a starter at Houston on Sunday, April 8. ...Two Buccos did the same in 2000 - righthander Bronson Arroyo received a no-decision against the Braves on June 13 (5.0ip/10h/5r/5er/2bb/1so) and southpaw Brian O'Connor received a no-decision against the Brewers on May 13 (2.0+ip/7h/6r/6er/2bb/0so)...Arroyo actually made his debut on June 12 as a pinch-hitter, but you get the point...The last Pittsburgh pitcher to start and win his major league debut was Kris Benson on 4/9/99 vs. Chicago (NL).

IT'S RAMMER TIME: At Houston's Enron Field on Sunday, April 8, Aramis Ramirez tied Pittsburgh's club record by hitting three home runs in the same game (it has now been accomplished 16 times by nine different players)...The last previous Bucco to homer three times in the same game was Darnell Coles on September 30, 1987 vs. Chicago (game two)...Ramirez also had three, two-homer games and finished the campaign with a total of 34.

UPON FURTHER REVIEW: Aramis Ramirez became just the ninth different Pittsburgh player and first since Darnell Coles on September 30, 1987 vs. Chicago (game two), to homer three times in the same game...With assistance from our friends at Elias Sports Bureau, Aramis (22 years, 9 months, 14 days) became the fifth-youngest player in the National League to homer three times in the same game...The youngest was Boston's Eddie Mathews (20), followed by New York's Mel Ott (21), Cincinnati's Johnny Bench (22 years, 7 months, 19 days) and Brooklyn's Tommy Brown (22 years, 9 months, 12 days).

HOME OPENER INFO: The Pirates, who lost an 8-2 decision to the Reds on April 9, have now lost their last eight home openers, winning for the last time on 4/6/93 vs. San Diego (Tim Wakefield over Andy Benes, 9-4)...Each of the last five home openers have been sold out...The Pirates last hosted the Reds in their home opener in 1960, when Vernon Law defeated Cal McLish 13-0 in front of 34,064 fans (the club's largest margin of victory in a home opener)...The Bucs have now played Cincinnati a total of 29 times in their home opener and have gone 21-8 in those games.

GAME ONE IS DONE: The Bucs lost, 8-2, to the Cincinnati Reds in the first-ever regular season game at PNC Park...The Pirates also lost their inaugural game in each of their other four home ballparks (Recreation Park, Exposition Park, Forbes Field and Three Rivers Stadium).

HOME OPENER STARTER: The last Pittsburgh starting pitcher to win a home opener was Tim Wakefield in 1993 (a 9-4 decision over San Diego's Andy Benes)...The starters have gone a collective 0-8 since then: Paul Wagner (1994), Jon Lieber (1995), Denny Neagle (1996), Francisco Cordova (1997, 1999), Jason Schmidt (1998, 2000) and Todd Ritchie (2001).

FIRST GAME UNDER THE LIGHTS: Wednesday, April 11 marked the first-ever night game for the Pirates in their new ballpark; a 6-5 victory over the Reds...The first night game ever played by the Bucs came in Cincinnati on May 31, 1935, with Pittsburgh winning 4-1...The first-ever night game in Pittsburgh came on June 4, 1940 - the Pirates won a 14-2 decision over the Boston Braves.

POPS PUT TO REST: On Saturday, April 14 in Wilmington, NC, a funeral service was held for Pirates Hall-of-Famer Willie Stargell, who passed away on April 9 of a stroke, which resulted from complications of long-standing high blood pressure, heart failure and kidney disease...Joe Morgan, who met Stargell in 1961 as a high school senior in Oakland, CA, delivered the eulogy...Former teammates such as Dave Parker, Manny Sanguillen, John Candelaria, Dock Ellis and Al Oliver were in attendance, along with former Manager Chuck Tanner and current broadcaster and teammate Steve Blass.

A CHILL IN THE AIR: The game on Monday, April 16, was postponed due to snow and cold weather...The Pirates have had many games rained out, but that game marked the first time since opening day of 1982 (April 6) that a Bucco home game was postponed due to snow.

BIG COMEBACK: The Pirates overcame a 7-0 deficit to defeat the Brewers, 8-7, @PNC Park on Sunday, May 20...It marked the largest deficit overcome since also beating the Brewers, 8-7, on 9/8/98 @Three Rivers Stadium (also trailed 7-0).

MAY DAY: The Pirates went 8-20 (.286) during the month of May, the club's worst record in a month since going 5-22 (.185) in September of 1998...The most recent worst showing in May was a 9-18 (.333) mark in 1996...The 8-20 mark is the team's worst showing in May since going 7-19 (.269) in 1957...The club's all-time worst record during the month of May in the modern era came both in 1952 (7-21 - .250) and 1940 (5-15 - .250).

MANAGER VIRDON: Manager Lloyd McClendon returned home to Merrillville, Indiana, to attend his daughter's high school graduation ceremony and missed the games in Florida on June 6 and June 7...Bench Coach Bill Virdon managed the club to 7-2 and 5-3 losses respectively...In 13 years as a major league manager, Virdon has posted a 995-921 (.519) record...He last managed in the big leagues for Montreal in 1984...In his two seasons as Pittsburgh's skipper (1972-73), Bill went 163-128 (.560) and won the National League East Division in '72 (lost to Cincinnati, three games to two, in the N.L.C.S.).

GAME #60: The Pirates were 19-41 after 60 games; the club's worst record after 60 games since 1954 (also 19-41)...The all-time worst start after 60 games came in 1952 and 1890 (16-44)...The '52 team went on to post a 42-112 record and the 1890 squad finished with a 23-113 record.

CAM FIRED: General Manager Cam Bonifay was relieved of his duties on June 11, 2001 (the Pirates had a 19-41 record)...He had been G.M. since June 19, 1993.

NEW PLACES: Here's how the Bucs have fared in their first game in recently-opened yards:

Ballpark (city)	W/L	SCORE	DATE	Ballpark (city)	W/L	SCORE	DATE
Comerica Park (Detroit)	W	13-3	6/12/01	Pac Bell Park (San Francisco)	L	2-10	8/3/00

PNC Park (Pittsburgh)	L	2-8	4/9/01	Turner Field (Atlanta)	W	3-2	5/2/97
Enron Field (Houston)	L	2-16	8/14/00

IN THE BIG INNING: The Bucs' nine-run explosion in the 4th inning @Detroit on June 12 represented the most runs scored by Pittsburgh in an inning since a nine-run 6th @Philadelphia on September 19, 2000...The Pirates scored as many runs for starter Todd Ritchie in the 4th inning that night than they had in his previous six starts combined.

BUCS/YANKS MAKE TRADE: The Pirates acquired left-handed pitcher Damaso Marte from the Yankees in exchange for infielder Enrique Wilson on Wednesday, June 13...In 23 games with Norwich (AA), the 26-year-old Marte went 3-1 with a 3.50 ERA.

1 MILLION: The club surpassed the 1 million mark in attendance on Sunday, June 24 - in the 33rd home date, which is a team record...The earliest the club had surpassed the one million mark prior to the 2001 season came on the 43rd date in 1990 (July 26) and 1960 (August 6).

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL STAR: Brian Giles was selected to play in the 2001 All-Star Game - his second straight appearance at the mid-summer classic...Giles, who led the club in home runs for the third straight year, grounded out to second base as a pinch hitter in the 9th inning of the game.

ON & ON & ON...: Brian Giles had a stretch in early July where he reached base safely 10 straight times (3 singles, 1 double, 3 home runs, 3 walks)...It was the longest such streak by a Pittsburgh player since John Cangelosi reached base 10 straight times in 1987.

AT THE BREAK: Pittsburgh's record of 33-53 was the club's worst at the All-Star break since 1985 (29-56). ...The Bucs were 38-48 (.442) at the break in 2000 and 43-44 (.494) in 1999...In 1997, the Pirates were 43-43 and led the N.L. Central by 1.0 game...The last Pittsburgh team to be over .500 at the break was the 1992 squad, which was 49-39 (.557) and in first place by 4.5 games.

NEGRO LEAGUE CELEBRATION: The Pirates and Royals once again wore the uniforms of the Homestead Grays and Kansas City Monarchs during their game on July 14...The two teams donned the same-styled uniforms last year in Kansas City on June 10 (Royals won the game, 2-1, in 12 innings)...Pre-game ceremonies included a Negro League display dedication inside the left-field gate entrance along General Robinson Street and a festival on Federal Street immediately following...Josh Gibson, Jr., Curt Roberts, Jr. and Negro League players Willie Pope and Wallace Williams were introduced to the fans in a pre-game ceremony on the field...Jazz vocalist Etta Cox sang the national anthem.

GOOSE EGGS: Pittsburgh's pitching staff recorded back-to-back shutouts on July 12-13; the first back-to-back shutouts for the Bucs since Doug Drabek (2-0) and Zane Smith (1-0) did so @St. Louis on June 30 and July 1, 1992...The last time the team posted three straight shutouts was @Three Rivers Stadium in 1976 (8-0 vs. St. Louis on October 2 and a doubleheader sweep vs. St. Louis on October 3 — 1-0 & 1-0)

NEW G.M.: Dave Littlefield was named General Manager on July 13...The club posted a 34-53 record prior to his appointment and went 28-47 after.

GOOSE EGGS AT HOME: The Pirates recorded three straight shutouts at home (June 28 and July 12-13) and the pitchers hurled 33 consecutive scoreless innings @PNC Park in that time...It marked the first time since the 1976 season that the Bucs tossed three consecutive shutouts at home (8-0 vs. St. Louis on October 2 and a doubleheader sweep vs. St. Louis on October 3 — 1-0 and 1-0).

A NEAR NO-NO: On Friday, July 13, Todd Ritchie came within two outs of tossing the eighth no-hitter in club history and the first by an individual Pittsburgh pitcher since John Candelaria did so against the Dodgers on August 9, 1976...Ritchie kept the Royals hitless until Luis Alicea singled to right field with one out in the 9th inning...It was the first one-hitter by an individual Bucco pitcher since Paul Wagner one-hit Colorado @Three Rivers on 8/29/95 (Kris Benson and Josias Manzanillo combined on a one-hitter against the Giants last year on August 29).

A LONG DAY: The Pirates hosted their first-ever "day-night" doubleheader on Saturday, July 28...The Bucs and Astros, however, played a "day-night" doubleheader in The Astrodome on August 10, 1968...Steve Blass (0.1ip/5h/5r/3er/1bb/0so) started the first game and lost a 16-3 decision to Danny Coombs...In the night-cap, Al McBean started for the Bucs, but Ron Kline recorded the 7-4 win over Pat House, who surrendered three runs in the 8th inning.

IT'S NEVER OVER: In the first game of the "day-night" doubleheader on July 28, the Pirates trailed the Astros 8-2 with two outs in the bottom of the 9th inning...Kevin Young then doubled off Mike Jackson and a home run by Pat Meares made it an 8-4 game...Pinch-hitter Adam Hyzdu singled to left field and then Jackson walked Tike Redman...Jack Wilson knocked in Hyzdu with a single to left, but the Pirates still trailed by three runs...Lefty reliever Billy Wagner entered the game and hit Jason Kendall with a pitch, loading the bases...Brian Giles took the first pitch for a ball and then hit a grand slam to right field to win it.

GAME ONE FACTS: The only other National League team to score seven runs in the 9th inning with two outs and nobody on was the Chicago Cubs, who scored seven against the Cincinnati Reds in the first game of a doubleheader on June 29, 1952 (Cubs won 9-8)...The American League record is nine runs...It also marked the second time in Pittsburgh history that the club erased a 6-run deficit when trailing after 8 innings...On June 11, 1933, the Pirates trailed 7-1 after 8 innings @St. Louis, but scored 10 in the 9th for an 11-7 victory (ties club record for most runs overcome when trailing after 8 innings).

DAY-NIGHT-DAY: Beginning with their 1:05 game on July 28, the Pirates and Astros played three games in a span of roughly 27 hours...The Pirates hold the distinction of being the only major league club to play three games in one day twice...Pittsburgh's last "tripleheader" came against Cincinnati on October 2, 1920 (Reds won two games)...The Pirates also played the first-ever "tripleheader" on September 1, 1890 against Brooklyn (Dodgers won all three games).

NO WHIFFS: The Bucco offense went the entire game on Saturday, September 8 without striking out - the first time that has happened since July 17, 1992 (that was a 2-1 loss to the Cubs @Three Rivers Stadium)...The last time the Pirates won a game in which they did not whiff was June 30, 1986 vs. Philadelphia (3-2).

18-GAME HOMESTAND ENDS: The game on Wednesday, September 26 brought an end to what turned into one of the longest homestands in club history, an 18-game, 24-day stay in Pittsburgh...On account of the terrorist attacks of September 11, the Pirates had been home since playing a doubleheader against Milwaukee on Monday, September 3...They went 8-10 in the 18 games, the longest homestand since an 18-gamer in 1960 (Bucs went 14-4).

100 LOSSES: The Pirates lost their 100th game of the season in game #161, a 13-2 setback @Wrigley Field on October 6...It marked the seventh time in club history and the first time since 1985 that the Bucs lost 100 games or more in a season...They also reached the century mark in losses in 1890 (23-113), 1917 (51-103), 1952 (42-112), 1953 (50-104), 1954 (53-101) and 1985 (57-104).

Now in their 116th National League season, the Pittsburgh Pirates own a history filled with World Championships, legendary players and some of baseball's most dramatic games and moments.

The Pirates' roots in Pittsburgh actually date back to April 15, 1876, when the Pittsburgh Alleghenies brought professional baseball to the city by playing their first game at Union Park. In 1877, the Alleghenies were accepted into the minor-league International Association, but disbanded the following year.

Baseball returned to Pittsburgh for good in 1882 when the Alleghenies reformed and joined the American Association, a rival of the National League. After the 1886 season, the Kansas City franchise was expelled from the N.L. and Pittsburgh President William A. Nimmick's application for membership was accepted.

On April 30, 1887, the Alleghenies defeated the defending league-champion Chicago White Stockings, 6-2, before a crowd of nearly 10,000 at Recreation Park. The victorious beginning was not an indication of things to come, however, as the team managed to finish higher than fifth only once in the 13 remaining seasons of the century. In 1890, the Alleghenies' roster was demolished when key players jumped to a new rival to the National League – the Players League. They staggered to a club-record 113 losses as the two leagues engaged in a bitter battle over talent.

When the Players League folded after only one season, all players were expected to return to the clubs they played for in 1889. But in 1891 Pittsburgh signed Louis Bierbauer, a second baseman with Brooklyn of the Players League who had spent the previous four seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. The As and their American Association brethren immediately accused Pittsburgh of "pirating" Bierbauer away from them. Pittsburgh kept the player and the nickname and became known as the Pirates thereafter.

The fortunes of the Pirates turned in 1900 when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to eight teams. As part of the move, Barney Dreyfuss, owner of the defunct Louisville club, acquired controlling interest of the Pirates. In the largest player transaction in Pirate history, Dreyfuss brought 14 players with him from the Louisville roster, including Hall of Famers Honus Wagner, Fred Clarke and Rube Waddell – plus standouts Deacon Phillippe, Chief Zimmer, Claude Ritchey and Tommy Leach. All would play significant roles as the Pirates became the league's dominant franchise, winning pennants in 1901, 1902 and 1903 and a World championship in 1909.

Wagner, dubbed "The Flying Dutchman," was the game's premier player during the decade, winning seven batting titles and leading the majors in hits (1,850) and RBI (956) from 1900-1909. One of the pioneers of the game, Dreyfuss is sometimes called "The Father of the World Series" because he challenged Henry Killilea, the owner of the American League champion Boston Pilgrims, to a post-season playoff in 1903 to determine who was baseball's best team. On October 1, 1903, Phillippe defeated the legendary Cy Young, 7-3, in the first World Series game ever played. Boston, however, later emerged as the Series winner, overcoming a three-games-to-one deficit to win the best-of-nine competition, five games to three.

The Pirates finished as runner-up three times in the next five years before getting another shot at a World Series title in 1909. The Bucs won a club-record 110 games that year with three pitchers – Howie Camnitz (25), Vic Willis (22) and Lefty Leifield (19) combining for 66 victories. The Series pitted the league's batting champions – Wagner and Detroit's Ty Cobb against each other, but rookie pitcher Babe Adams, who was 12-3 during the regular season, emerged as the Series hero for the Pirates.

While Camnitz, Willis and Leifield failed to win a game, Adams won three, including a six-hit shutout in the seventh and deciding game. It was the last of four titles the Pirates would win under Clarke, who managed the club until 1915.

The 1909 season also marked the beginning of a new era in ballparks as the Pirates christened Forbes Field on June 30th that year. Since 1891, the Pirates had called Exposition Park – which was located on virtually the same site as Three Rivers Stadium – their home. Described as the "Hialeah of Ballparks" when it opened, Forbes Field would remain the home of the Pirates for six decades and would host many great moments.

Pittsburgh sank to the league's second division for most of the next decade, but by the early 1920's – with an influx of outstanding talent which included future Hall of Famers Pie Traynor, Kiki Cuyler, Rabbit Maranville and Max Carey – Pittsburgh was again a contender. After three straight third-place finishes from 1922 to 1924, the Pirates won the N.L. title by eight and a half games over the second-place New York Giants in 1925.

The Series matched Pittsburgh against the Washington Senators, who jumped out to a three-games-to-one lead. The Pirates, however, bounced back to win the final three games and the Series. Their miraculous comeback included a 15-hit pounding of Hall of Famer Walter "Big Train" Johnson in Game Seven.

In 1926, a rookie named Paul Waner joined the Bucs and batted .336. A year later, his brother Lloyd joined him and belted out 223 hits for a club rookie record .355 average and the Pirates were again National League champions. Paul, who was nicknamed "Big Poison" – batted .300 or better 14 times, captured three batting titles and collected 200 or more hits in eight different seasons. He was named the league's most valuable player in 1927 and went on to compile 3,152 hits and a .333 career batting average. Lloyd – who was tagged "Little Poison" – hit .300 or better in 10 of his first 12 seasons, compiled a career mark of .316 and accumulated 2,450 hits. Both were elected to the Hall of Fame.

The 1927 World Series featured the Pirates against New York's famed "Murderers' Row" with Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig who swept Pittsburgh in four straight games. The next 33 years, Pirate fans went without a pennant winner, although they were not denied their share of great players and great moments.

The Waners were consistently among baseball's premier hitters during the 1930's with Paul amassing more hits (1,959) during the decade than any player in baseball. Traynor was one of the era's best all-around players and is generally regarded as one of the finest third basemen ever to play the game. Shortstop Arky Vaughan topped the .300-mark in each of his 10 seasons with the Pirates (1932-1941) and his .385 average in 1935 has gone unequalled by any National League performer. He, too, is enshrined at Cooperstown.

Hall of Famer Ralph Kiner won or shared the N.L. home run title in each of the seven seasons that he wore a Pirates uniform (1946-52) – which is a streak that has never been matched in either league. In 1956, Pirate first baseman Dale Long hit home runs in a record eight straight games between matched against the powerful New York Yankees in the World Series. This time the Bronx Bombers featured Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris.

The 1960 World Series remains one of the most incredible post-season encounters ever on record. The Yankees won Game Two, Game Three and Game Six by a combined score of 38-3, but the Pirates used great pitching, defense and timely hitting to stretch the Series to a seventh game at Forbes Field. Pittsburgh took a 9-7 lead into the ninth — thanks to Hal Smith's three-run homer in the eighth — but the Yankees came up with two runs in the top of the ninth to tie the game. The game and the Series ended, however, in the bottom of the ninth as Mazeroski belted what is perhaps the most dramatic home run in baseball history off Ralph Terry. Mazeroski was the only player in baseball history ever to end a World Series with a home run until Joe Carter of Toronto accomplished the feat in the 1993 fall classic.

During the 1960's, Clemente established himself among the game's elite players. He collected more hits (1,877) than anyone during the decade and would go on to reach the 3,000-hit plateau in 1972. During his marvelous career, he topped the .300 mark 13 times, won four batting titles and was named the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1966.

During the 1970's, the Pirates were again among baseball's premier teams. In that 10-year span, they won six division titles and finished as low as third only once. In the first 25 years of divisional play, the Bucs won more games (2,100) and finished first more often (nine times) than any other N.L. East club. The Pirates put together a 2,100-1,878 record during that period (.528 winning %).

The Pirates captured two more World Championships during the 1970's. Their 1971 victory over Baltimore was a showcase for Clemente who batted .414 and received the Series MVP award. In 1979, the Pirates became only the fourth team in history to erase a three-games-to-one deficit when they again bested the Orioles in seven games. Hall of Famer Willie Stargell took home MVP honors — as he did during the regular season — with a .400 batting average, three home runs (including the Series' deciding blow in Game Seven) and seven RBI. It was a fitting conclusion to the decade for Stargell, who was the leading home-run hitter of the 1970's (296).

On October 2, 1985, the Galbreath family and Warner Communications sold the club to Pittsburgh Associates; a group of private investors who were committed to keeping the team in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh Associates was made up of 10 investors representing six corporations, three individuals and Carnegie Mellon University. The group included the Aluminum Company of America, Mellon Bank, PNC Financial Corporation, PPG Industries, USX Corporation, Westinghouse Electric Company, Eugene and Raymond Litman, John McConnell and Harvey M. Walken.

After several lean years in the mid-eighties, the Pirates returned to contention in 1988 when they finished in second place and broke the club's 28-year-old attendance mark.

With players like Barry Bonds, Doug Drabek, Bobby Bonilla and Andy Van Slyke, Pittsburgh started the decade of the 1990's in fine fashion, winning the N.L. East title three straight years. The Bucs became the first team to win three straight division titles since the Philadelphia Phillies accomplished the feat between 1976 and 1978. Bonds captured MVP honors in 1990 and 1992, while Drabek won the Cy Young award in '90. Manager Jim Leyland took home N.L. Manager-of-the-Year honors in both 1990 and 1992. In his 11 seasons at the helm, Leyland won 849 games, placing him third on the club's All-Time Managerial win list.

The people of Pittsburgh and the surrounding Tri-State area responded well to the club's success in the nineties as the Pirates drew in excess of two million fans in both 1990 and 1991. A crowd of 59,568, the largest ever to watch a professional game in Pittsburgh, witnessed the 65th Major League Baseball All-Star Game, played at Three Rivers Stadium on July 12, 1994.

A new chapter of Pirate history began on February 14, 1996, when Kevin McClatchy and his group of investors purchased the storied franchise from Pittsburgh Associates.

Picked by many publications to finish last in 1997, the Pirates remained in the division race until the final weekend of the season and the club was named USA Today's "Organization of the Year" at the conclusion of the season.

The 2000 season was the end of a full century of great moments, a 100-year period which began with three straight National League pennants and ended with an aura of hope and dreams of more championships to come. With a new home on the horizon, the Bucs said goodbye to Three Rivers Stadium with their final game ever played there on October 1, 2000. Three no-hitters, Clemente's 3000th hit, two All-Star Games, countless playoff games, two World Championships and endless summer evenings can be associated with no other place in the history of Pittsburgh than Three Rivers Stadium.

McClatchy's vision of a new baseball-only ballpark became a reality when PNC Park officially opened its gates on April 9, 2001. Regarded by many as the best ballpark ever built, PNC Park is an intimate two-level structure which offers all fans dramatic views of the downtown skyline as well as the natural grass playing surface.

Unfortunately in 2001, a beloved member of the Pirates family was lost when Willie Stargell passed away on April 9th.

Despite suffering through their ninth straight losing season in 2001, fans came out in record numbers as the Bucs played in front of 19 sellouts and a total of 2,436,139 customers during the inaugural season at PNC Park.

With current slugger Brian Giles leading the way, the Pirates are hopeful to regain their championship ways in the years to come.

THEY SAID IT...

"I name Honus Wagner first on my list, not only because he was a great batting champion and baserunner and also baseball's foremost shortstop - but because Honus could have been first at any other position, with the possible exception of pitcher. In all my career, I never saw such a versatile player."

- Legendary Hall-of-Fame manager John McGraw referring to Pittsburgh Hall-of-Fame shortstop Honus Wagner.

BRIAN GRAHAM DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Brian Graham joined the Pittsburgh organization as its Director of Player Development on December 3, 2001. In addition to overseeing the signing of all minor league free agents, Graham will be responsible for the development and advancement of players throughout the club's farm system, and, ultimately, to the major league level.

Graham spent the 2001 season as the Minor League Field Coordinator for the Florida Marlins. Prior to joining the Marlins, he worked for the Baltimore Orioles as a major league coach for one season. Brian was also a member of the Cleveland Indians major league coaching staff in 1998 and served the Indians as their First Base and Infield Coach in 1999.

Originally selected by Oakland in the fourth round of the 1982 June draft, the former second baseman spent five years in the minor leagues playing with Oakland, Milwaukee, Detroit and Cleveland. He also played baseball and football at UCLA, finishing as the school's all-time leader in hits, stolen bases and runs scored. Brian was elected to UCLA's Hall-of-Fame in 1996.

Following his playing days, Graham turned to managing and compiled a 704-491 (.589) record in nine seasons as a minor league skipper. He guided his teams to the playoffs in each of his final eight seasons (1990-97), including a 1991 Carolina League title with Kingston (Indians' A) and a 1997 American Association title with Buffalo (Indians' AAA).

Graham was named the Carolina League's Manager-of-the-Year in 1991 and was named Minor League Manager-of-the-Year by USA Today's Baseball Weekly in 1996 after guiding Buffalo to an 84-60 record and an Eastern Division title. He led his clubs to the best regular season record in their respective divisions in five of his nine seasons as a manager.

Brian was born on 4/9/60 in San Diego, CA. He attended UCLA for four years, but received his BS degree from National University in San Diego. Graham resides in Medina, OH, with his wife Karen and his two children; son Jack (9) and daughter Kelsey (8).

PNC PARK INFORMATION

JEWEL ON THE NORTH SHORE

Making its debut in the spring of 2001, PNC Park opened to rave reviews and offered fans, media and just about anybody entering through its gates, an awe-inspiring look at the Pittsburgh skyline and the surrounding area. A combination of Forbes Field, Wrigley Field and Camden Yards, PNC Park is considered by many as the greatest ballpark ever built. Paul Beeston, the Chief Operating Officer of Major League Baseball proclaimed it to be "the best-looking baseball stadium he had ever seen." Following the inaugural campaign of 2001, USA Today Baseball Weekly rated PNC Park as "The Best Stadium" in its "Best in Baseball" issue.

Maintaining the beauty of the playing surface is a year-long process. The installation of the approximate 2.2 acres of Kentucky bluegrass began on October 30, 2000. The warning track, which consists of a ribbon of crushed red lava from Colorado, is placed atop a layer of gravel. The infield dirt is a mixture of clay, sand and peat moss. Luke Yoder, Steve Erickson and Rich Hook are employed by the Pittsburgh Pirates and are the primary caretakers of the field. Throughout the 2001 season, Yoder and his staff featured many different designs cut into the outfield grass (see below). Whether you're a first-time visitor to PNC Park, or a season-ticket holder, you never know what you'll see inside the jewel on the north shore.

LUKE YODER

MANAGER, FIELD MAINTENANCE

Working in "his dream job," Luke Yoder was appointed the club's Manager of Field Maintenance in February of 2000.

In his role, Yoder is responsible for the day-to-day maintenance of the playing surface at PNC Park. Prior to joining the Pirates, he spent four seasons (1996-1999) in the same capacity with the Iowa Cubs in Des Moines, IA, the Chicago Cubs' minor league affiliate. In 1996, Luke captured the Groundskeeper-of-the-Year award, presented by the American Association.

Luke spent the 1995 season as the Head Groundskeeper for the Sioux City Explorers, an independent team which plays in the Northern League.

Yoder was born on 5/14/72 in Columbus, OH. He is a 1994 graduate of Clemson University and has a BS degree in Horticulture Turf grass Management.

STEVE ERICKSON

SUPERVISOR, FIELD MAINTENANCE

Steve Erickson is in his second season as one of the supervisors of field maintenance at PNC Park.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Erickson served as the head groundskeeper for the Schaumburg (IL) Flyers, an independent team which participates in the Northern League, for one year.

In 1998 Steve worked as an assistant groundskeeper for the Iowa Cubs, the Triple-A affiliate of the Chicago Cubs, located in Des Moines, IA. After graduating from Iowa State University in 1997 with a Horticulture degree and a Turfgrass Management emphasis, he spent some time working at the Country Club of the Rockies in Edwards, CO, before joining Luke Yoder's staff in Iowa.

Erickson was born on 9/27/73 in Iowa City, IA.

RICH HOOK

SUPERVISOR, FIELD MAINTENANCE

Rich Hook is in his second season as one of the supervisors of field maintenance at PNC Park. He joined the Pirates staff in August of 2000.

A 2000 graduate of Eastern Kentucky University (degree in Horticulture with turf grass emphasis), Hook spent his four years at school working as a member of the university's grounds crew.

In 1999, Rich served as an assistant groundskeeper with the Iowa Cubs, the Triple-A affiliate of the Chicago Cubs.

Hook was born on 1/26/76 in Des Moines, IA.

Three of the many designs cut into the grass at PNC Park. The one on the right was a tribute to Bill Mazeroski, who entered Baseball's Hall of Fame on August 5, 2001.

THE HISTORY OF THE PIRATES UNIFORM

- 1900: The jersey of this period was short-sleeved with no trim except for a dark blue collar. Stockings were dark blue with red stripes and the cap was blue with a white "P". A "PBC" monogram signifying Pittsburgh Baseball Club was also added to the left sleeve later in the decade.
- 1910: The regular collar was replaced by the short, stand-up "cadet" style with a button collar. Pinstriped material was also introduced. As the team nickname became more accepted, "Pirates" was displayed in capital letters down the button lapel. The cadet-style collar soon gave way to a tapered collar extension, but the button lapel remained solid dark blue with white buttons and a "P-P" straddling the top button. Later in this decade, the cap had piping and also included a "P" in white or red.
- 1920: Standard white uniforms were worn at home and gray on the road with simple graphics and solid colors. The 1925 & '27 championship teams wore the standard capital "P" on its sleeves but not on the jersey.
- 1930: The Pirate uniforms brightened up considerably with added colors, trim features and graphics. The name "Pirates" was placed across the jersey in an arc of fancy red and blue capital letters. Solid blue belts were included and piping trim on the uniforms included blue and red. A red "P" was also placed on the solid blue cap.
- 1937: The name "Pirates" appeared on the jersey in script lettering with underline flourish.
- 1939: A zipper front replaced the button-down jersey.
- 1941: The uniform abandons the traditional "P" or "Pirates" for an emblem of an actual buccaneer. The patch was placed on the left breast of both the home and road jerseys. This was the first time an emblem of the team's nickname was ever worn on a game jersey.
- 1948: The team replaced the traditional blue and red with the present day black and gold. The script "Pirates" and "Pittsburgh" was replaced with the block lettering that you still see today. The cap became solid black with a gold "P".
- 1953: The word "Pittsburgh" is removed from the road jersey, and replaced with "Pirates".
- 1957: The Pirates became the second team to begin wearing sleeveless jerseys.
- 1962: Numbers were introduced on the front of the home and road jerseys and have been there ever since.
- 1970: The Pirates became the first major league club to adopt the new double-knit fabric uniforms. The jersey became a pullover with no button or zipper. The pants contained a built-in sash belt. The cap crown was mustard yellow with a black bill. Within two years, nearly every other club was wearing a double-knit uniform.
- 1976: The Pirates, as well as other clubs, commemorate the National League's centennial by wearing the old striped, pill-box style caps. The Bucs wore yellow caps with a black bill and black stripes.
- 1977: Abandoned were the traditional white and gray uniforms in exchange for combinations of white, gold, black and pinstriping. The caps became black with yellow stripes. Players' last names appear on the back of the jerseys for the first time.
- 1985: The Pirates returned to the basic white and gray uniform.
- 1987: The Pirates replaced the striped cap in favor of the traditional standard black round crown type.

BROADCASTERS

LANNY FRATTARE

Voice of the Pirates

The 2002 season marks Lanny Frattare's 27th as a broadcaster with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He signed a three-year extension in January of 2000, which will keep him behind the microphone with the Bucs thru 2003, at which time he will have broadcast more games than any other person in club history.

A native of Rochester, NY, Frattare received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca (NY) College in 1970. His association with the Pirates organization began in 1974 and 1975 when he broadcast games for the Triple-A Charleston (WV) Charlies. He joined the Pirates at the major league level in 1976.

Frattare enjoys golf, presidential history and music. He hosts a celebrity golf tournament at St. Clair Country Club each July for the benefit of the Parent and Child Guidance Center. In 2000, Frattare was inducted into the Ithaca College Hall-of-Fame. Lanny's wife, Christine, is the Director of Choral Studies and Theatrics at Upper St. Clair High School. She is also the interim music director at Westminster Presbyterian Church and is the assistant conductor of the Mendelssohn Choir of Pittsburgh. Lanny has two children; son David (27) and daughter Megan (20). David currently works in the Attorney General's office of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and his wife, Ann Marie, is in the marketing department at Giant Eagle. Megan is currently attending the University of the Arts in Philadelphia. David's wife, Ann Marie, gave birth to Spencer Ryan on 2/15/02.

GREG BROWN

Play-by-Play Announcer

Greg Brown is in his ninth season as a radio and television play-by-play announcer with the Pirates. Prior to joining the Bucs broadcast team, he spent five seasons (1989-1993) doing play-by-play and color commentary for the Buffalo Bisons of the American Association as well as hosting a sportstalk show on WGR Radio. Brown also worked as a color analyst and a pre- and post-game show host for the Buffalo Bills of the National Football League for three seasons (1991-93).

Greg's association with the Pirates actually began in 1979, when he interned in the Promotions department while attending Point Park College. Following the World Series that year, Brown worked as the clubhouse manager during the Instructional League program in Bradenton, Florida. His 10-year stint in the Bucs front office included work in the Sales, Public Relations and Broadcasting departments. Greg also served as the team's public address announcer during the 1987 campaign. In 1988, he was a sports anchor on WFMJ-TV in Youngstown, OH.

Brown, who joined the Pirates broadcast crew in 1994, coined the "Freak Show" theme which gained national attention during the team's surprising division title run in 1997. Also in 1997, the Pennsylvania Press Broadcasters awarded Brown and his colleagues first place for radio play-by-play.

Greg, a native of Washington, D.C., resides in McCandless Township with his wife Kim and son Ryan (3).

Steve Blass is in his 42nd year with the Pirates, having been associated with the club since signing his first professional contract on June 27, 1960. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 seasons (1964-1974) with the Pirates, compiling a record of 103-76 in 282 games. He ranks seventh on the club's all-time list in strikeouts (896) and 14th in wins.

After retiring following the 1974 season, Blass remained in the Pittsburgh area and worked in private business, while continuing to do community service for the ballclub. In 1983, he worked with the legendary Bob Prince on Pirate cable telecasts and was also retained the following year when the cable rights were secured by Home Sports Entertainment. Blass joined the Pittsburgh Pirates radio broadcast crew in 1986.

BOB WALK

Color Analyst

After spending 14 seasons in a big league uniform, Bob Walk joined the Pirates broadcast crew in 1994. The former right-handed pitcher spent 10 of those 14 years with Pittsburgh (1984-1993). He compiled a 105-81 lifetime record, which included an 82-61 mark with the Pirates.

Walk's pro career began with Spartanburg in 1977 after he was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 3rd round of the 1976 June draft. He made his big-league debut with the Phillies in 1980 and was the starting pitcher in Game One of the World Series that October against Kansas City.

In the spring of 1981, Walk was dealt to the Atlanta Braves for outfielder Gary Matthews. He spent three seasons in the Atlanta organization before being acquired by Pittsburgh in 1984.

Bob was a 1988 National League All-Star and he posted six straight winning seasons from 1987 to 1992. His finest moment as a Pirate came in 1992 when he notched a 7-1, complete-game victory over Atlanta in Game Five of the National League Championship Series.

Walk, a native of Newhall, CA, resides in Wexford with his wife Lorrie and their three sons; Tommy (22), Johnny (19) & Ronny (12).

MEDIA POLICIES

WELCOME: On behalf of the Pittsburgh Pirates organization, we would like to welcome you to the second season at spectacular PNC Park. We respectfully remind you that the policies for PNC Park, along with many other venues across the country, have changed since last year. Any violation of the following guidelines, or the rules and regulations set forth by Major League Baseball, may result in immediate revocation of your credential and bar future access to PNC Park. If you have any questions or requests, please don't hesitate to ask our staff and we will make every attempt to accommodate you. We look forward to working with you once again throughout the 2002 season.

THE PIRATES MEDIA RELATIONS OFFICE: Located on the fourth floor of the team's administrative building on the corner of General Robinson Street and Federal Street. All persons wishing to visit the media relations office must sign in with the 24-hour security guard on the street level of the building.

MEDIA ENTRANCE TO PNC PARK: All members of the media must enter the ballpark at the "Press Tower" - the tallest of the two towers located on General Robinson Street, adjacent to the Home Plate entrance to the park (left-field line). YOU MUST HAVE A PHOTO ID TO GAIN ACCESS TO THE BALLPARK.

PRESS BOX/BROADCAST BOOTHS: All broadcast booths are located on the press box level. Access to the press box is available only by the "Press Tower" elevator. Only accredited members of the media and credentialed personnel will be permitted in the press box. The press box is an active working area. Cheering and loud conversation will not be tolerated at any time. The Pittsburgh Pirates prohibit any person under the age of 18 to enter the press box level on game days (unless authorized or accompanied by a representative of the Media Relations department). Anyone violating these policies will be asked to leave the premises. No cameras (still or video) are allowed in the press box unless authorized by Media Relations.

PARKING: Media parking is very limited, as you found out in 2001. Daily requests will be handled on a first-come, first-served basis. Season parking passes will be distributed along with season credentials in March (if applicable). The location of the media parking lot is expected to be the same as last year.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Located along the Service Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The room will be used for media conferences and other special events and interviews.

PRESS LOUNGE: Located along the Service Tunnel between the home and visiting clubhouses. The lounge is open to credentialed members of the media and front office staff 2 hours prior to the game. The lounge will close approximately 1 hour after the start of the game. A full meal is served to all media for $7. Soft drinks and snacks will be available during games on the press level.

PHONES FOR MEDIA: The Pirates will supply 10 Charge Call phones in the working press box. Please let a media relations representative know if you wish to have your own dedicated phone line in the press box.

NO SMOKING: Smoking is prohibited in the press box and in the broadcast booths. Those wishing to smoke may do so on the stairwell of the "Press Tower," located outside the press box entrance.

MEDIA INFORMATION

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering sources who will cover the Pirates every day. Only members of the working press will be issued credentials (this does not include freelance writers). No one under 18 years of age will be issued working credentials, unless clearance has been given by the Pirates. Only Pittsburgh Pirate, National League or BBWAA-issued credentials will be honored. Credentials are not transferable and should be visible at all times.

PHOTO IDENTIFICATION: All season credentials distributed by the Pirates must contain a photo of the bearer. Dates will be set aside for all media to have photos (head shots). Failure to submit a photo to the Pirates will result in no season credential.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: These will be issued to those who do not qualify for season credentials, including freelance writers and weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to area radio and television stations when the need arises for extra pre/post-game personnel and daily newspapers making last-minute changes in coverage. Daily requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance of the desired game. All daily credentials must be picked up at the MEDIA ENTRANCE to PNC Park, located along General Robinson Street, adjacent to the Home Plate entrance to the park. All media must show photo identification and observe the rules and regulations set forth by Major League Baseball before gaining access to PNC Park.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: Applications for working media credentials should have been made in writing and received no later than Monday, March 18. All requests must come from sports editors, sports directors or photo editors and submitted on official media outlet letterhead. Requests for daily credentials can be faxed to (412) 325-4413 or e-mailed to any one of the three members of the Media Relations staff.

ON-LINE SERVICES: Per Major League Baseball guidelines, the Pirates will not issue working credentials to any on-line service, unless they meet each of the following criteria:

1. It is part of a national news gathering agency.
2. It reaches a broad audience.
3. It produces original content.
4. It has an established record of developing original content.
5. It employs full-time journalists.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS: Both clubhouses are located along the Service Tunnel. The Pirate clubhouse is on the third base side and the Visitor's clubhouse is on the first base side. The Pittsburgh clubhouse is open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. It re-opens to credentialed media approximately 5 minutes following the conclusion of the game. The manager's office may be open briefly between games of a doubleheader only for those with early deadlines. The clubhouse is closed during rain delays. It is also closed while the club is taking batting practice on the field, unless the player needed is in the clubhouse. Access to the visiting clubhouse will be determined solely by the visiting club's policies. In addition, the clubhouse is not a "lounge" for members of the media - you must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. If you have specific interview requests for a player or coach, we encourage you to contact a member of the Pirates' Media Relations staff, who will try to accommodate your needs.

FIELD ACCESS: The field and dugouts are accessible to credentialed media from the time the press gate opens until the end of the visiting club's batting practice. If the visiting club does not take batting practice, the field is accessible until 45 minutes before game time. At no time is the media permitted in fair territory and all media must stay inside the first and third base bags. Access to the field is available on the Service Level only by one of two tunnels: one leading into the visitor's dugout or one located right outside the home clubhouse, which leads to the area adjacent to the third-base bag and Pirates dugout.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY: Credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment on the playing field, in the dugout or in the clubhouse. Should the need arise for an autograph request, notify the Media Relations Department. Any violation of these guidelines could result in immediate termination of the credential and future access.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Darkrooms are located along the Service Tunnel behind home plate. Limited photo locations are available at various field level areas, as well as in the TV locations located around the ballpark. All photographers must have credentials and roving is prohibited unless authorized by the Pirates. No freelance photographers will be granted credentials. All photographs taken are to be used for news-gathering purposes or officially licensed products. All still photo locations should be reserved through Dave Arrigo, the Pirates' official team photographer.

REPORTS, RADIO & TV: Reports are defined as NON play-by-play reporting by non-rightsholders of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game in-progress updates and post-game summaries.

- Reports must be limited to 60 seconds in length and no more than one report per inning may be filed to each media outlet.
- Radio and television reporters/stringers must notify the Pirates of their plans to do live reports at the time credentials are requested.
- Television reporters may file live reports from the field or an assigned press-level booth up until game time. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or while the game is in progressive television reports - to air during regularly scheduled news programming - are permitted during the game only when there is no home telecast. These in-game reports may not show the game in progress.
